Re: United States v. Anthony D. Brinkley
08 CR 343 (JCF)

Dear Judge Francis:

I write to request a modification of Mr. Brinkley's bail conditions. Mr. Brinkley pled guilty before Your Honor on April 30, 2008 to a Class B misdemeanor and is currently awaiting sentencing on August 27, 2008. For the past seven months, Mr. Brinkley has been in full compliance with his bail conditions. As a condition of his bail, Mr. Brinkley has been residing at the Riverside Support Center drug rehabilitation facility in Port Jervis, New York since December 21, 2007.

I write at this time to request a modification of Mr. Brinkley's travel restrictions to allow Mr. Brinkley to travel to Richmond, Virginia from August 1 to August 3, 2008 to attend a family reunion. The director of Riverside Support Center has approved this trip. I have also spoken with Mr. Brinkley's pre-trial service officer, Dennis Khilkevich, who consents to this modification. I have spoken to Assistant United States Attorney, Carrie Cohen, who also consents to this modification.

Application granted.

SO ORDERED.

James C. Francis IV
VSMJ

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Brown
